

SBAR

Situation – resident's details, identify reason for this communication, describe your concern

Background – relating to the resident's significant history, this may include medication and treatments

Assessment – what is your assessment of the resident or situation, this can include any concerns, vital signs, national early warning score

Recommendations – be specific, explain what you need, make suggestions, clarify expectations and confirm actions to be taken